THE FIREMEN'S PRACTICE.

It Was Satisfactory, Interesting and Full of Excitement.

The practice yesterday afternoon by the fire department was satisfactory. The boys have not yet become over skillful in handling the new truck but are fast beginning to get the ladders up on a building in a very creditable manner. A few more afternoons of practice will, it is hoped, get them in championship form for the annual contest. The boys will begin to practice in dead earnest next week and will give a good account of themselves at Goldsboro.

The practice was not at all dull yesterday. On the contrary, it was full of interesting and exciting incidents, and one of them came near being very unpleasant for one of the department's guests. An alarm was turned in from box 32 at the McAdoo corner by President J. D. McNeill, of Fayetteville, as a signal for the trucks and engine to leave their respective houses. A few minutes after the alarm was sent in, the chief's buggy containing Chas. Corl and Chief Monroe, of the Wilmington Fire Department, was seen coming down North Elm with the horse going at a long swinging gallop and at the same time the Eagle hose wagon was coming up North Elm at full speed. In front of the National Bank the two collided, but, fortunately at an angle. The horse hitched to the chief's buggy struck the hose wagon horse sidewise and tilted the buggy to one side. Mr. Monroe lightly sprang to the ground and escaped injury. It was a very narrow, if not miraculous, escape. The buggy was considerably damaged but neither the horse nor Mr. Monroe was hurt.

Mr. Corl as a result of the collision had his right collar bone broken. It has been dressed and bandaged and is getting along as well as could be expected.

Many of the spectators expected to see all three seriously injured.

All of the apparatus quickly responded to the alarm and very soon a number of streams were being played on the nearby buildings. Three streams were turned on the bank building and one stream on the McAdoo corner building.

The next movement practiced was the "water tower." The new hook and ladder truck was pulled into the middle of the street and the "tower" sent up. The ladders of the truck made a tower of forty-five feet high, from the top of which a stream of water, with the help of "General Greene," was thrown. The combined heighth of tower and water was nearly 150 feet.

Capt. Boycott climbed the tower and held the muzzle. The tower was slowly turned around and the crowd of spectators, probably a thousand or more had to run to shelter or open their umbrellas. Chief Monroe highly complimented the boys on their work.

DON'T MIX YOUR STAMPS.

And Be Careful That Stamps Are Properly Cancelled.

The fact that some of the internal revenue stamps are merely postage stamps with "I. R." printed on them is liable to lead to mistakes. Already a number of letters have been mailed bearing internal revenue instead of postage stamps. The stamps cannot be used interchangeably. Therefore see to it that no revenue stamps go on your letters and that postage stamps are not used for the new purposes prescribed by the law.

As to the places where stamps may be had. All the banks have the regular two cent internal revenue stamps and will accommodate patrons. The Western Union Telegraph office keeps the one cent variety used on messages. The railroads are supplied with the kind used on bills of lading and all instruments in railroad business. The stamps of larger denomination than two cents have not arrived, we are informed, but the amounts may be made up of two cent stamps until the larger denominations are available. Those who have occasion to use the new stamps should be careful to see that they are properly cancelled as heavy penalties are imposed for infringement of the law. The stamp is cancelled by writing on it your initials and the date. By careful attention to these matters you may save yourself trouble and money.

SWEPT ALL BEFORE THEM.

Americans Capture the Spanish Entrenchments.

THOUSAND KILLED AND WOUNDED

San Juan Forts Captured and Morro is Doomed—Americans at the Very Gates of the City.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Siboney, July 2—The fighting aroung Santiago practically stopped at nine o'clock on yesterday evening. It was resumed with renewed vigor this morning and is raging fiercely all along the lines. The Spaniards are fighting like demons but the American onset is irresistible. By eight o'clock on yesterday evening the American troops had advanced nearly to the city limits. The losses in yesterday's fighting are now estimated at over one thousand men killed and wounded. The American reserves are being hurried to the front with the apparent intention of forcing a way into Santiago. The fortifications of the city are very strong and the fatalities have been large in consequence. The chief sufferer in yesterday's fighting was the Twenty-first Infantry of the regular army. It bore the brunt of the fighting and was engaged in storming the outposts.

SAN JUAN CAPTURED.

Santiago, July 2—Early this morning the fighting was resumed by the advance of the Americans under Kent. San Juan heights, lying between the American army and Morro Castle and constituting the chief landward defense of the castle, have fallen into the hands of the Americans. The way for an advance on Morro Castle is now open and its fall is imminent. The victory at San Juan heights was dearly purchased. The place was the strongest of all the Spanish defences. It was strongly fortified and valiantly defended. The natural strength of the place was great. The Spaniards were stationed on the top of a very steep hill defended by artillery and barracades. The height was also occupied by barracks. The Americans stormed the heights after a fierce engagement in which both sides lost heavily. The Spaniards were finally dislodged and driven back at every point, the Americans taking possession of the heights. The village of Caney was also captured by the Americans. General Kent, who commanded the division which stormed the heights, is greatly elated with the victory and is enthusiastic in his praise of the dash and daring of the American troops.

TRIED ONCE TOO OFTEN.

Key West, July 2—The British steamship Benitestingen was brought into port a prize this morning. She was captured off the southern coast of Cuba while attempting to run the blockade. She had aboard a large quantity of supplies which had been taken on at Jamaica for Gen. Blanco. Several Spanish smacks that were captured are also here.

NOTHING ELSE TO DO.

Cadiz, July 2—Admiral Camara's fleet has been engaged in a sham battle for the last two days. The officials have notified the consul at Port Said that two of Camara's warships have entered Suez canal and the rest have put out to sea to coal.

RELIEF AND BUFFALO FOR CUBA.

New York, July 2—The hospital ship Relief and the dynamite cruiser Buffalo will clear from here this afternoon and go to the scene of operations in Cuba.

TO HURRY TO SHAFTER'S AID.

Camp Alger, Va., July 2—Hurried preparations are being made to reinforce General Shafter. It is probable the Eighth Ohio and Sixth Illinois will be sent on the cruiser Yale as soon as she arrives. Many new rifles are being received and large supplies of everything here indicate that a quick movement will be made upon the arrival of the Yale.

The Railway Crossings.

There has been much complaint among those who drive across the Southern crossings because they are not warned of the approach of a train. Frequently, and too often for public good perhaps, have the flagmen at some of the crossings been seen down the street and away from his post when freight and shifting trains were passing.

An instance which demonstrated the value of the flagmen and guards occurred this morning at the Davie street crossing an account which appears in another place. Those having it in their power to properly protect the persons crossing the railways should look into this matter and see that safety is given both pedestrians and drivers.

Loss Estimated at Forty Thousand Dollars.

Special to the Telegram.

Winston, July 2—Fire broke out in the second story of Huntley's furniture store on trade on Trade street about half past two o'clock this morning. The origin of the fire is unknown. Mills, general merchant and the establishment of the Winston Hardware company were partially. The buildings belonged to T. L. Vaughn The loss as near as it can be estimated at thistime is about $40,000. The isurance so far as can be learned is as follows: Huntley $1,000, Wills $6,700, Martin & Rose $4,500, Winston Hardware Co., $1,500, Vaughn on buildings, $1,000. HAVE WE TAKEN SANTIAGO?

Alger Said the City Would Be Captured by Tonight.

SAMPSON TO FORCE THE HARBOR

And Sink Cervera,s Ships—Despite American Victory Gen. Miles Says The Situation Is Critical.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, July 2—There is no doubt in the minds of the officials of the war department that Gen. Shafter resumed his attack on Santiago this morning. According to a dispatch received by the war department, the Americans began this morning shortly after daybreak a general assault on the city of Santiago. The department is silent in regard to the message. Secretary Alger says he expects that by sunset this evening the city will have fallen and the Spanish forces either taken prisoners or in full flight from the city. Dispatches received from the front make it almost certain that the American troops will capture the city tonight. The dispatches also stated that Admiral Sampson had not entered the harbor this morning, but will bring his vessels in during the day and sink Cevera's ships. The only thing to block his passage is a powerful battery placed at Cayo Smith, just inside the harbor.

During the night the Vesuvius hurled a dozen dynamite shells at the island and the place must now be torn into shreds. It is thought that more than 1000 Americans were killed and wounded. The chief sufferers are the first, fourth, twenty-first, seventh, sixtieth, sixth and tenth regiments of the regular army, and the seventy-first New York, and second Massachusetts volunteer regiments.

The Rough Riders were not actively engaged. News of a second battle is momentarily expected.

SHAFTER NEEDS MEDICAL AID.

Washington, July 2—A dispatch received from General Shafter says he fears the extent of the American loss has been underestimated. He says he must have a fully equipped hospital ship at once with more medical officers and additional supplies. He states he stands in great need of more launches.

SITUATION CRITICAL.

Washington, July 2—A despatch has been received from General Shafter saying that the American loss was at first underestimated. The despatch has created a commotion in official circles. After a short session the war board sent a despatch to New York ordering relief hospital ships to sail from New York at once to join Shafter. It is believed however that the hospital ships have already sailed for the south in which case they will touch either at Tampa or Savannah and orders have been sent to both points in anticipation of that event. General Miles said today that he regarded the situation at Santiago as very grave, even critical. The news has caused a stir in all the departments.

GENERAL ENGAGEMENT FOUGHT.

Washington. July 2—The profoundest concern in official circles marked the opening of the day here. War department admits fighting around Santiago has been desperate. Casualities known to be over a thousand. Secretary Alger, Adjutant-General Corbin and Surgeon-General Sternberg held a conference this morning. It is understood the latter will send a large force of medical officers with appliances to join General Shafter without delay. Department refused to give out anything for publication this morning beyond saying that the first estimate of casualties was far below the actual loss.

Great seriousness pervades military circles. The news that gallant troops had captured the plateau of San Juan and Caney was welcome, but there is now full realization that this was done in the face of a withering fire instead of a skirmish on the right flank as reported. It is now clear that a general engagement has been fought.

Third Anniversary.

The third anniversary of the Bethel A. M. E. church will be held tomorrow. The members have just put in new pews and will use them for the first time tomorrow. The pastor of the church invites everybody to be present and will reserve seats for the white friends of the church. Rev. J. E. Gay will conduct the afternoon service to be held at three o'clock. Presiding elder King, a former pastor of the church, will conduct one of the services. The members anticipate pleasant and profitable services.

Lawn Party.

There will be a lawn party Wednesday night, next, on the beautiful lawn at Mrs. Ballard's. It will be given by the Ladies' Aid Society of St. Andrew's church. First-class cream and cake will be served and at low prices. Let all turn out and spend a pleasant evening.

IN THE TEETH OF THE LAW.

Southern Express Company Refuses to Pay the Tax.

There is likely to be considerable trouble over the new revenue law, in more ways than one.

Section A of the law explicitly declares that railroad and express companies shall issue to the shipper a receipt or bill of lading for goods, duly stamped, and affixes as a penalty a fine of $50 to be paid by such company for failure to comply with the provision.

The various express companies held a meeting in New York and issued a circular to all agents stating that the shipper must pay the tax, despite the clear declaration of the law.

On yesterday the Odell Hardware Company took a package to the express office for shipment. The agent received the package, stamped the receipt and asked that the stamp be paid for by the shipper. The shipper declined and the express agent refused to deliver the receipt until he could hear from headquarters. Instructions came not to issue the receipt. This morning the Odell Hardware Company took another package to the office of the express company and the agent refused to receive the package until the stamp on the receipt had been paid for. Thus the matter stands.

An able attorney, whose advice in the matter was asked for, says it will be the duty of the district attorney to institute an action for all such failures to comply with the provisions of the law. Therefore, if you are a shipper preserve the data and call the matter to the attention of District Attorney Holton that action may be brought.

In addition to this there is a state statute which imposes a penalty of $50. for refusal on the part of a common carrier to transport such goods as are usually handled by the company. Beside the penalty each shipper is entitled to such damages as may result from the refusal to ship or the non-shipment of goods.

There is not a shadow of doubt as to the meaning of the law. The provision that the company shall pay the tax is as clear and explicit as the English language can make it. It is an unadulterated attempt on the part of the express company to bulldoze the shipper into paying the tax. The railroad companies pay the tax, imposed by the same paragraph and in the same language. If all shippers follow the courageous example of the Odell Hardware company the express company can be forced to pay the tax. It is only a small matter but it is a question of right and the shipper should not allow himself to be imposed upon.

The Singin Skule.

The "beginment" of Jedediah Bobbin's "Singin Skule" last night at the court house was well attended and much enjoyed. Nearly all of scholars were dressed in old time costumes and every character from the dude to his country cousin was represented. The entertainment was unique and novel and although the weather was exceedingly warm the audience did not seem to tire or grow restless. The scholars played well their parts and kept those present continually laughing.

Among the songs, those sung by Richard Crawford and Miss Lola Carraway and Mr. Willard and Miss Hattie Watlington deserve special mention. Jim Rankin played the part of Davy Doodle to perfection and Bob Glenn was a typical Yellow Kid. Messrs. Frank and Henry Boyles, Marvin Carr, Jule Reitzel, Elmer Richardson and Louis Beall were particularly amusing.

Misses Susie Stone and May Small were typical old maids. The two twins, Misses Mamie Roberts and Lettie Shober, won the prize for the greatest improvement in singing. The entertainment was a success and many spoke of wishing to see it played again.

If Mrs. Jedediah Bobbins had not been so much in evidence the entertainment would have been more enjoyable.

Can't the war department spare a file of soldiers to shoot the weather bureau?

Let no cynic hint that in her friendliness for us England had a weather eye on those unpaid sealing claims.

If the generals at the front wish to know the very best methods of getting through a fence, Collector Harkins has had some experience, of a highly successful nature, in that business.

With each succeeding day of anti-annexation speeches the pressure on the inside of the annexation boilers rises one hundred pounds to the square inch. How much pressure can an annexation boiler stand at 6777 degrees centigrade?

Next Monday being the Fourth of July the Telegram will not appear. The public will have news from the seat of war accessible, as usual, in the form of bulletins. The Telegram force wishes to take a mid-summer holiday and they have a right to it. The Telegram advises all its patrons to devote one day to patriotism. Despite the war tax, it is a pretty decent sort of country our forefathers have scraped up for us and it is just as well to cool off and think about it.

And here comes the Progressive Farmer, Col. Ramsey's own, of this current week of grace, and in one of the Colonel's most seductive editorials advising his populist constituents whom to send and whom not to send to the legislature, winds it up with the following very significant suggestions the climax we might say of his fervid oratory.—Raleigh Post.

There are no climaxes in the oratory of the Progressive Farmer. How can there be any climax where there are no lower levels? The oratory of the Progressive Farmer never rises and never falls. It is all one glorious detonating climax. Be just to Dr. Ramsey.

"They rally us good-naturedly," said Mr. Depew, "on our protestations of pure sentiment in this war, and say: 'Yes; that is the way we always get in and then we stay. Christianity and civilization demand it, you know and we give the beggars liberty, law order and justice, which they never had before. It's in your blood. You have aroused the appetite of earth-hunger and you cannot stop.'"

The above is from an interview by the Hon. Chauncey M. Depew, since his return from England the other day, and purports to be the view of intelligent Englishmen. It doubtless is. What is more to the purpose, it goes near to the truth. "You have aroused the appetite of earth hunger and you cannot stop"—apparently that cuts out the future policy of this country. The paragraph expresses tersely, if cynically, the English policy, and we shall follow the English because it is in "the blood" and because it is the only decent example. It is likely to prove entertaining if not very restful.

SATURDAY'S LITERARY CHAT.

[All books and magazines mentioned below may be had at Wharton's book store.]

The July Cosmopolitan opens with a more fervid than convincing eulogy of Emperor William, by Mr. C. Frank Dewey, who is not of kin to the American admiral, being a German by birth. We have the usual details as to how the emperor eats, sleeps, rides, etc., ad nauseam, embellished by many photographs, his majesty standing the fire of the camera with great coolness, apparently. The reader learns, with some surprise doubtless, that the emperor is a poet, and a Ciceronian orator. Evidently enthusiam, not judgment, ruled the writer. Emperor William has doubtless been somewhat maligned, but to be told that he is built on Frederic the Great lines appeals only to the American sense of humor. A very clever story with a romantic setting is Henry S. Brook's "Envoy Extraordinary" in the same periodical. The second paper of the reputed autobiography of Napoleon Bonaparte shows the same terseness and cynicism as the first. We are promised the revelation of its origin next month. There is a paper on the "Customs of War vs. The Customs of Peace" by Captain Charles King.

July Scribner's is rather disappointing. The division of it dealing with the first bombardment gives a rather vivid idea of a warship in action. The serial by the same author, "The Kings Jackal," is completed, the hero vanishing in a mist of devotion and requited affection, while the two chief villians go to dinner—a rich and well prepared dinner. The reader is not given to understand that either had indigestion, a catastophe richly merited by all villians, both heavy and light. A Malay song by R. A. Stoddard is a delicious bit of verse. "The Worker's," by Wyckoff, and "Red Rock," by Page, continue the interest of the earlier chapters.

A capital western story with fine bits of color in Harper's, is "Sun-Down Leflare's Money," by Frederic Remington. It is a great pity that Mr. Remington cannot rid himself of seeming to write in his sleep. That he appreciates keenly the illuminating points of rough life is shown by his incomparable drawings. If only he had Bret Horte's knack of story telling! "The Story," by George Hibbard, is a keen psychological study that does not intrude its moral—nor needs to. An article of especial interest to newspaper men, and one that would not result in positive injury to newspaper readers, is George W. Smalley's "Notes on Journalism." The author combats very convincingly the theory that reporting is the best school for the journalist.

Stands at the Head.

Aug. J. Bogel, the leading druggist of Shreveport, La., says: "Dr. King's New Discovery is the only thing that cures my cough, and it is the best seller I have." J. F. Campbell, merchant of Safford, Ariz., writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery is all that is claimed for it; it never fails, and is a sure cure for consumption, coughs and colds. I cannot say enough for its merits.' Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds is not an experiment. It has been tried for a quarter of a century, and today stands at the head. It never disappoints. Free trial bottles at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Baby's Face.

Dexter, Granville Co., N. C., March 30, 1898.

MRS. JOE PERSON,
Dear Madam—About the last of December there appeared something like heat on our baby's face. On the fourth sunday in January his face and head were filled with running sores and he suffered severely. We were satisfied the dreadful disease was eczema. On the above mentioned day Rev. K. D. Holmes and Mr. Herbert E. Crews recommended to us in the highest terms, Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. With the great confidence we had in these gentlemen, we proceeded at once to use it. Two months later, the fourth Sunday in March, Rev. Mr. Holmes saw the same child and could scarcely recognize him. The child is seven months old, his face is well, and there are only slight signs of the disease about his head. He is the picture of health and is hearty and strong. We gladly recommend Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy for all forms of eczema, and think that it is the bast blood purifier on the market. With best wishes, I am,
Your friend.

The Oregon as she appeared on her famous trip from the Pacific to the Atlantic has been reproduced on canvas for the Bohemian Club, of San Francisco, by Charles Rollo Peters. The frame for the picture is made of wood secured from the famous old Hartford, and the club proposes to present the painting either to the officers of the Oregon or to Congress.

The surging wave of reform has struck Danville, Ill., says the New York Times, and on a recent Sunday all the drug stores were closed. The druggists did not take kindly to the new order of things, and one of them tacked a notice to that effect on his front door for the information of his patrons.

Blood Brains Money

A sick man can't make money That's because his brain wont work. A horse wont do work unless he is properly fed. Neither will a brain. If the brain is not kept in good condition with pure, rich blood, it wont produce much.
Men who fail, and men who don't, often have whatthey call "Nervous Prostration." Nine times in ten the nervous trouble is purely secondary. The real sickness is in their digestion and in their blood. If a man keeps his digestion in good order, and keeps his body full of pure, rich blood, he is never going to be very sick.
Johnston's Sarsaparilla is made for people who want to get well and stay well. Sarsaparilla is a simple, "grandmother" remedy, but it cures. It purifies and enriches the blood and sends it tingling to every part of the body. That is the way it cures all ailments of the brain and nerves—cures insomnia—cures dyspepsia, rheumatism, scrofula, and every other blood disease. It clears the complexion, plumps out the cheeks, and brings back the sparkle to lifeless eyes.
One Dollar is the price, and One thousand Dollars is the healthgiving value of every Quart Bottle of Johnston's Sarsaparilla

The Advance

—OF—

Shafter's Army

Upon the City of Santiago is Momentarily Reducing distance and we are expectantly waiting to hear of a great battle, the result of which many think will be practically the end of the war, as We Americans will tolerate no thought but Victory, But while our brave boys wage battles for the freedom of down trodden Cuba, the children at home must be clothed. As the season advances, naturally our profits grow less. We can't sell summer goods in winter, and for that reason if you will give us a call we will make you some interesting prices in Children's Clothing. Ages 3 to 16. These suits are made up in all the leading styles.

Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Kidd, of Bristol, Tenn., arrived in the city at noon to visit their daughter, Mrs. B. S. Phillips.

J. B. Whitaker, editor of the Winston Sentinel, was in the city today to meet his daughter Mrs. A. S. King, of New Orleans

Misses Daisy Dods and Laura Powell, of Reidsville, who have been spending a few days with Mrs. Payne, left today for Mt. Airy.

J. T. Temple, of Richmond, has come to Greensboro to live and will open a bicycle repair shop at Garland Daniel's sporting goods store.

Mrs. Mary Timberlake, of Wake Forest, is visiting her sister Mrs. W. B. Allen, at the Allen House. Mrs. Timberlake is the mother of Judge Timberlake.

Hacks and wagons will leave the McAdoo House at 3:30 for the big ball game between Reidsville and Greensboro July 4th. Fare 10 cents each way. Game called at 4 o'clock.

Hon. Page Morris, of Duluth Minnesota, spent yesterday here on a visit to his mother Mrs. Morris who is quite ill. Mr. Morris is a brother-in-law of our townsman R. C. Stanard.

Rev. J. T. Johnson, pastor of Grace church, will leave next Tuesday morning for Nashville, Tenn., to attend the convention of the Christian Endeavor, which meets in that city next Wednesday evening.

Attention is called to the schedule of trains on the C. F. & Y. V. road to the Battle Ground on Monday, July the Fourth. Sixteen trains will run each way, thus giving excellent facilities for attending the festivities. The trains run at intervals of about forty minutes.

Mr. P. D. Satchwell has been a member of the local bar for some months has accepted a place in the claim department of the Wabash railroad. Mr. Satchwell has made many friends during his stay here who will be sorry to see him go, though pleased that his merits are thus recognized.

James D. McNeil, of Fayetteville, president of the North Carolina Fire Association, and Assistant Chief Monroe, of the Wilmington fire department, are spending some time here as the guests of the fire department. They spoke in very complimentary terms of the drill of the department on yesterday.

We regret to hear of the serious illness of Mrs. J. F. Badgett, of Blackwells, Caswell county, N. C. Mrs. Badgett is a sister of Messrs. J. S. Cobb, of this place, and H. W. and H. A. Cobb, of Danville and J. B. Cobb, of New York. Mrs. Badgett is at present at Patrick Springs, Va., to which place Mr. H. W. Cobb goes today.

One person yesterday afternoon seemed to be under the impression that he had turned time backward in its flight and he was living again in the days of 1884. He had imbibed too freely of mountain dew and was lustily cheering for Cleveland and Thurman. He was taken in charge by the police and his enthusiasm allowed to cool in the guard house.

Our attention has been called to the fact that there is not a sufficient supply of water at the fountain in front of the courthouse and many persons have been unable to water their horses there. If a horse needs water at any one season of the year more than another it is in the hot summer. If possible, this should be corrected soon and a full flow of water supplied at this place.

Married.

On Thurrday evening, at the residence of S. P. Jones, J. A. Pope and Miss Minnie A. Leonard were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, Rev. W. M. Cooper, officiating.

Persons troubled with diarrhoea will be interested in the experience of Mr. W. M. Bush, clerk of Hotel Dorrance, Providence, R. I. He says: "For several years I have been almost a constant sufferer from diarrhoea, the frequent attacks completely prostrated me and rendering me unfit for my duties at this hotel. About two years ago a traveling salesman kindly gave me a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Much to my surprise and delight its effects were immediate. Whenever I felt symptoms of the disease I fortify myself against the attack with a few doses of this valuable remedy. The result has been very satisfactory and almost complete relief from the affliction." For sale by C. E. Holton.

Wholesale Dry Goods House.

We have heard it rumored that a wholesale dry goods house will soon be opened here. While we are not able to speak authoritatively in regard to the establishment of the new business we sincerely hope that there is some truth in the statement and soon this enterprise will be added to Greenboro's list of hustling business houses.

Struck By The Train.

This morning about 6 o'clock as the horse of Mr. Phillip Pope was being driven across the Davie street railroad crossing by the colored driver the shifting engine backed a box car against the buggy and crushed and destroyed it. The driver says there was no flagman at the crossing to warn him nor were the guards down and the first intimation he had of the approach of the train was when he felt it hit the buggy. It was only by good fortune that the driver was not killed.
